Ttttttt Numb. 4839

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, April 24. 1717.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated April 24.

Warſaw, April 9.

THE Staroſt of Luckowicz has taken Priſoners in his Diſtrict, 200 of the dibanded Poliſh Troopers, who would not lay down their Arms, but have roved and plunder'd ſince the Peace. They were Commanded by Major Seinowsky and Captain Lopoki. The Staroſt has endeavour'd to cauſe theſe two Officers to be ſeverely puniſh'd, but he will hardly get it done, there being great Sollicitations for their Pardon.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated April 27.

Hamburgh, April 23. We hear from Mecklemburg that the Nobility fly the Country: Alſo that there is Advice at that Court, that the Czar of Muſcovy will come thither, as he comes back from France, whither the Czarina, who will tarry for him at Weſel, will accompany his Majeſty.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated April 20.

Francfort, April 14. The Heſſian Troops [illegible] of two Regiments of Foot of 1100 [illegible] and one of Horſe of 400, are [illegible] for Hungary. The Elector has at laſt received his Bull from the Pope, which he ſo long waited for from Rome.

Cologne, April 16. The King of Pruſſia is ſhortly expected in the Country of Cleeves to make a Review of his Troops there: And becauſe the Peaſants, and other young Fellows fly the Country, for Fear of being preſs'd into the Service, his Majeſty has publiſhed an Edict, declaring that none ſhall be liſted but thoſe that offer themſelves freely.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 24.

Cologne, April 15. The Regiment of Holſtein Beck has paſs'd the Rhine, and continue their March to Hungary. The Guards of the Elector Palatine that were at Duſſeldorp, have received Orders to ſet out this Week, to march to Inſpruck. They write from Francfort, that the Regiment of Herberſtein paſs'd by there the 6th, and took their Road by Hocht and Hanaw, towards Hungary. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt has married the Daughter of the Count de Hanaw; and many Princes their Relations were at the Wedding. Three Thouſand Men of the Troops of Heſſe are ready to march for Hungary, with a Train of Artillery.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated April 24.

Francfort, April 18. The Imperial Regiment of Herberſtein being march'd forward, that of Holſtein Beck and the Wurtzburg Recruits, are now ſet forward thro' Franconia, and will be followed by a Battalion of the Imperial Ahnſpach Regiment, whereof his Imperial Majeſty has declar'd, The Hereditary Prince of Ahnſpach, Charles William Frederick, Colonel. Two other Anſpach Batallions coming from Poland, take the Way of Zwickau and Planen to Ratisbon, and from thence are to march to Hungary.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated April 27.

Francfort, April 21. Their moſt ſerene Highneſſes the Duke and Dutcheſs of Wolfembuttel Blankenburg, arrived here on Thurſday Evening from Wisbaden, and return'd thither on Saturday, accompanied by the Prince of Itzſtein; they were ſaluted at their Entrance and Departure by the Cannon on our Ramparts. The Dutcheſs will ſuddenly purſue her Journey from thence by the Way of Ratisbon for Vienna, to aſſiſt her Imperial Majeſty at her Lying-in. The Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt will depart To-morrow with the Marquis d'Onolsbach to Darmſtadt, in Order to preſs the Preparations for the ſolemn Reception of the Hereditary Prince and his Conſort, who ſtop here till all is ready. The General Baron de Wachtendonck paſſed by here ſome Days ſince, going to Hungary. The Colonels commanding the Imperial Regiments of Herberſtein and Holſtein, Anſpach and Heſſe-Caſſel, who are to make the Campaign in Hungary, are arrived at Ratisbon, where they take up Ships to tranſport their Regiments by Water to that Kingdom. According to the Letters from Swiſſerland, the Marquis d'Avarey Ambaſſador of France, expected the Deputies at the Cantons of Soluthurn to deliver his Credentials.

Cologne, April 23. Letters from Inſpruck adviſe, that his Highneſs the Elector Palatine, having on the 19th of March, the Feſtival of St. Joſeph, granted the moſt ſerene Princeſs his Daughter, to his Highneſs the Hereditary Prince Palatine of Sultzbach, the Marriage is to be celebrated there; and 'tis aſſur'd that the Prince and Princeſs will depart from thence in May, to come and reſide ſome time at Duſſeldorp, and that his Electoral Palatine Highneſs will go from Inſpruck to Heydelberg, to make his Reſidence there.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated April 27.

Paris, April 19. Two Days ago the Chamberlain of the Czar of Muſcovy arrived here, and was Yeſterday with the Marquis de Dreux, and M. le Sainctot, to notifie that his Czariſh Majeſty intends to come hither, and declare when he may arrive. The ſame Chamberlain has alſo diſcourſed them upon the Manner wherein that Monarch ſhall be received. In the mean time, many of the King's Coaches and Calaſhes have, for ſome Days paſt, been ſending to Abbeville to receive him.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 27.

Paris, April 23. The News we had, that a Fleet of seven Ships, that is to say, five Spaniſh and two French, with a Lading valued at 14 Millions, in Gold Silver and rich Merchandize, under the Convoy of one of our Men of War, were arriv'd at Corunna from the Weſt-Indies, in the End of the laſt Month; is not confirm'd by the Letters we have from St. Sebaſtian of the 10th Inſtant, nor by thoſe from Bayonne of the 14th. Apartments in the Old Louvre are fitting up for the Czar who is ſhortly expected here, and will, 'tis ſaid, tarry but a very little time. The Regent will pay him daily 3000 Livres, for defraying the Expences of his Table, &c.

From the Paris News-Letter.

Paris, April 28. Letters from Turin of the 10th Inſtant mention, that the Count de Shan who is made Admiral of the Duke of Savoy's Fleet, had received Orders to repair to Meſſina, where the Rendezvous is to be made, of all the Men of War that have been built in the different Ports of the Kingdom of Sicily, and to conduct them to Nizza. The Ambaſſador of Spain has frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of his Sicilian Majeſty: The ſame Ambaſſador had newly received a Courier with Diſpatches from Madrid, which he immediately communicated to the King, and then ſent back the Expreſs. They write from Nizza, that ſeven Sicilian Ships were arrived from Palermo, which brought Corn, and 18 Pieces of Cannon of 24 Pound Ball. A great deal of Hay is bought up in Provence, to be ſent to Oneglia, from whence it will be tranſported to Piedmont for Subſiſtance of the Cavalry.

In Grange-Court near Lincolns-Inn, liveth Tho. Fern, Surgeon, who hath an excellent Secret, which in one Hour's Time, Cures the Toothach without Drawing, and prevents it from ever returning; as a great many of the Nobility and Gentry, and ſeveral hundreds of others in this City and Suburbs, for 20 Years laſt paſt, have found by Experience. He being the Author of this Medicine, to prevent its being counterfeited, diſpoſes of none but what he himſelf or Family applieth.

The Volatile Cleanſer and Strengthner of the Reins, an Elixir, which brings away viſibly by the Urine all Relicks of Secret Injuries; ſcowring the Reins of all Foulneſs, Filth, Slime, or Matter that obſtructs the free Paſſage of the Urine, cauſes ſharpneſs of it, or too frequent Occaſions to make it: Strangories Ulcers, &c. tho' of the longeſt Date, known by Pains and Weakneſs of the Back, Thread Skins, Flims, or Hairs flying out, or Matter ſettling at the bottom of the Urine, its ſtrong Smell, &c. than which nothing is more common after ill Cures. It not only cleanſes, but alſo after a particular manner, moſt powerfully ſtrengthens the Reins, recovers their loſt Tone, and brings all thoſe Parts and Paſſages into their right Order, in both Sexes. Price half a Guinea a Bottle, with Directions ſeal'd up, which is generally enough to cure any one Perſon. To be had at Mr. Lockton's Toy-ſhop at the Griffin the Corner Shop in Bucklersbury in the Poultry. N B. This is the ſame that hath been publiſhed and ſold for above theſe 6 Years, with ſuch extraordinary Succeſs and Satisfaction, which ſufficiently takes off any Suggeſtion that it is a Counterfeit; therefore I ſhall ſay no more in its Vindication.
